

AUDITIONS

By Bruce Norris

Directed By Kashi Johnson

CLYBOURNE PARK

AUDITIONS

Monday, Nov. 14 4:30 – 6:00 & 6:30 – 9:00pm
Tuesday, Nov. 15 4:30 – 6:00 & 6:30 – 9:00pm

CALLBACKS

Wednesday, Nov. 16 5:00 – 6:00pm

To view a copy of the script or sign up for an audition time, visit the Dept. of Theatre office in room 301, Zoellner Arts Center.

AUDITION LOCATION: Diamond Theater

*Arrive 10 minutes early to fill out audition information form.

Winner of the 2011 Pulitzer Prize for Drama and the 2012 Tony Award for Best Play, this satiric comedy takes a fascinating look at how we talk about – or avoid talking about – race in America. Using Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun as a jumping-off point, the play begins in 1959 as a black family moves into a white neighborhood in Chicago, and in act two takes us to the same house in 2009 as gentrification sets in and the roles are reversed. Jokes fly and hidden agendas unfold as two generations tiptoe through social politics, pitting race against real estate.

Winner of the 2011 Pulitzer Prize for Drama and the 2012 Tony Award for Best Play, this satiric comedy takes a fascinating look at how we talk about – or avoid talking about – race in America. Using Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun as a jumping-off point, the play begins in 1959 as a black family moves into a white neighborhood in Chicago, and in act two takes us to the same house in 2009 as gentrification sets in and the roles are reversed. Jokes fly and hidden agendas unfold as two generations tiptoe through social politics, pitting race against real estate.